

CORRIDOR MORNINGS

INVITE-ONLY TECH BREAKFASTS ACROSS PAKISTAN'S MISSIONS ABROAD

01 THE OPPORTUNITY

Pakistani tech is growing.

Many buyers abroad have yet to meet it.

$4.6B

ICT exports, FY2025–26. A record year.

+21%

growth on the previous year

57

missions, each with a room and a flag

■ Pakistan's missions abroad (illustrative)

Other countries already open doors through their diaspora.

SCOTLAND

GlobalScot

1,200+

senior diaspora leaders opening doors for Scottish firms

NEW ZEALAND

Kea

2001 founded as a public-private network making business

introductions

INDUS DIASPORA

TiE

60+

chapters, grown from one
Silicon Valley group in 1992

SOUTH KOREA

KOTRA

1:1

buyer meetings arranged before exporters arrive

Corridor Mornings combines

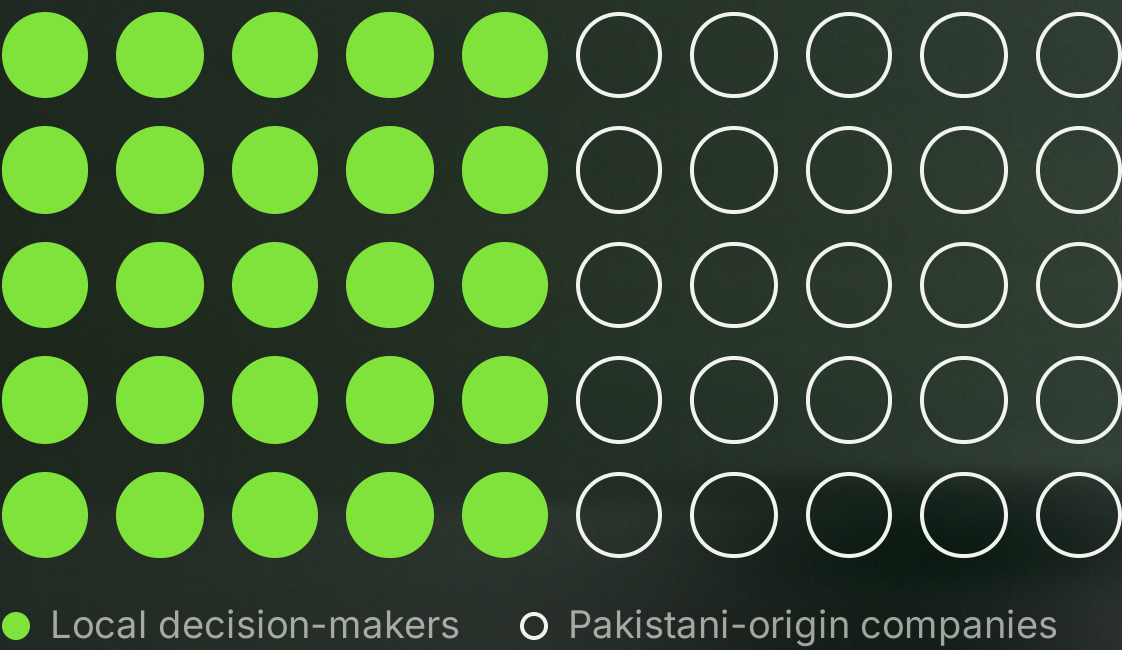

THE MISSION'S INVITATION

THE DIASPORA'S NETWORK

INTRODUCTIONS PLANNED IN ADVANCE

One morning, in each city.

Invite-only, hosted at the embassy or consulate. Around 50 guests, before the working day begins.

■	■	■	■	■	■
7:00	7:15	8:00	8:05	8:20	9:00
Arrival	Introductions	Welcome	Keynote	Open floor	Close
Personal QR check-in, coffee	Planned matches, made in person	3 minutes from the mission	Optional, 15 minutes	Conversations continue	Guests leave for work

7:00 - 9:00 TIMING ADJUSTS TO EACH CITY'S WORKING WEEK

Three partners, each doing what it does best.

THE HOST

The Mission

- The room and the flag
- Invitation co-signed by the Head of Mission
- Local chambers and trade bodies

THE PROGRAMME OWNER

PSEB

- Shortlist of registered exporters
- Partnerships and sponsorship
- Tech Destination Pakistan narrative

THE OPERATOR

BYOC

- Guest curation, from BYOC's network and beyond
- Invitations, personal QR passes, reminders
- Check-in, planned introductions on the day
- Follow-up and outcome reporting

140+ GATHERINGS 21 COUNTRIES

Personal from the first invitation.

Every guest is chosen, and every pass is theirs alone. BYOC runs the whole flow.

BEFORE 01

Curated guest list

BYOC network, mission contacts, PSEB exporters

BEFORE 02

Personal invitation

Co-branded, sent one guest at a time

BEFORE 03

Personal QR pass

Unique to each guest, non-transferable

BEFORE 04

Reminders

Calendar, a week out, the evening before

ON THE DAY 05

QR check-in Seconds at the door, live guest count

ON THE DAY 06

Planned introductions

Each guest knows who they are there to meet

LIVE BYOC CHECK-IN

YOUR PERSONAL PASS

CORRIDOR MORNINGS

Embassy of Pakistan, Riyadh

GUEST 024 • 07:00

2 INTRODUCTIONS PLANNED

ADD TO CALENDAR

Guests leave at 9:00. The follow-up begins.

- Same day Thank-you note, and a directory of who was in the room
- Week 1 BYOC brokers follow-up introductions on request
- Day 30 Follow-up meetings checked and logged
- Day 90 Outcomes report to PSEB and the mission: meetings, pilots, deals

WHAT EACH MORNING IS MEASURED ON

~50 guests in the room

50 / 50 local and Pakistani-origin

20+ planned introductions

10+ follow-up meetings within 30 days

90 days deals and partnerships tracked

Partners host the morning.

Partnerships are led and secured by PSEB. BYOC supports with partner packs, delivery and reporting.

ONE BRAND • EVERY CITY

GLOBAL FOUNDING PARTNER

- Named on every invitation, in every city
- Presence at every morning
- Series-wide outcomes report

ONE PER CITY

CORRIDOR PARTNER

- "Hosted by" credit on the invitation
- Places for their own clients
- A one-minute welcome

IN KIND

COFFEE PARTNER

- A specialty coffee bar in the room
- Brand presence at the coffee station

WHO PARTNERS, AND WHY

Pakistani tech firms with clients there

Host their clients, deepen accounts

Tech firms entering the market

Meet buyers with the mission's backing

Global firms with Pakistan delivery teams

Show local clients the bench behind them

Corridor services

Airlines, payments, telcos, market-entry advisors

Riyadh first.

Then one morning
in every city.

Weeks 1-2

Date and room confirmed with the Embassy. PSEB confirms partners.

Weeks 3-5

Guest list curated. Invitations and personal passes go out.

Week 6

The first Corridor Morning, Riyadh.

Weeks 7-18

Outcomes tracked. Playbook set for the next cities.

SEE YOU
AT 7:00

in Riyadh

CORRIDOR MORNINGS — INVITE ONLY — CORRIDOR MORNINGS — INVITE

